Consultation examples with a school counselor

What is a school counselor?

We provide support for all aspects of school life by utilizing our specialized knowledge and experience as licensed psychologists and clinical psychologists, based on perspectives such as psychoeducation.

● Concern 1: I can't communicate well at school.

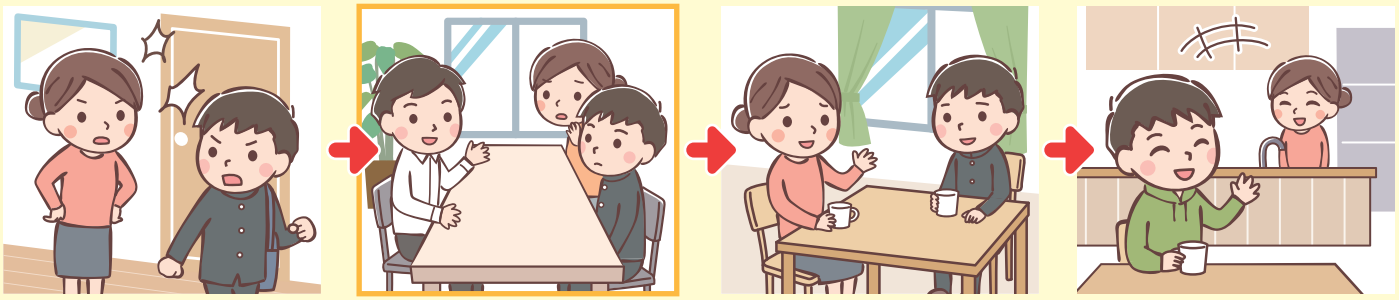

I feel lonely because there's no one to talk to.

After consulting with the school counselor, we gradually felt less anxious about talking to others.

I've found someone I can talk to in the classroom.

School has become more enjoyable!

● Concern 2: My relationship with my parents is not going well.

I had an argument with my parents.

We consulted with the school counselor and decided to have a conversation as a family.

My parents were also struggling.

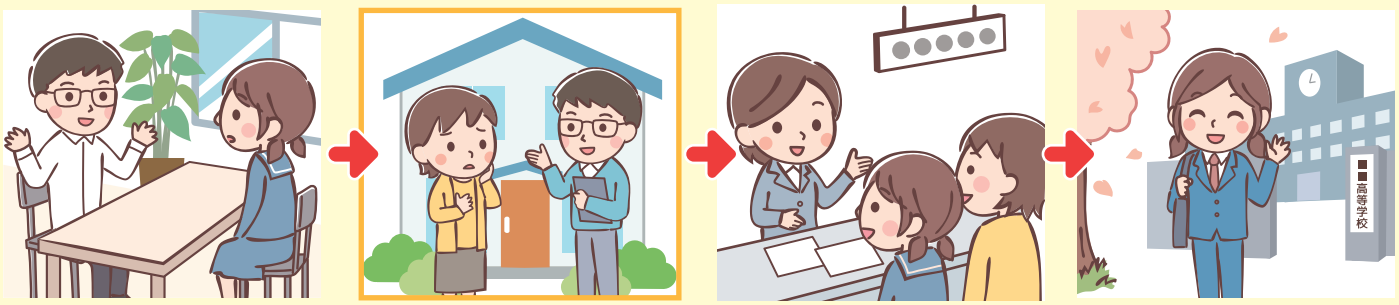

We were able to talk about each other's feelings, and our emotional distance has decreased.

Consultation examples with a school social worker

What is a school social worker?

We leverage the expertise and experience of social workers and other welfare professionals to engage with children's environments and coordinate with related organizations.

● Concern 3: I want to continue my education, but I'm worried about financial issues.

I want to continue my education, but we can't afford it and don't know what to do.
